

RESTful API Quiz - Answer Key

1. REST stands for Representational State Transfer.
2. a) GET, POST, PUT, DELETE
3. The GET method is used to retrieve data from the server.
4. a) 200 - It indicates a successful request.
5. CRUD stands for Create, Read, Update, Delete.
6. b) /users/5 - This is the RESTful format for accessing a specific user.
7. 404 - This status code means the resource was not found.
8. An endpoint is a specific URL where an API resource can be accessed.
9. c) Both a and b - JSON and XML are commonly used formats.
10. The PUT method is used to update or replace a resource on the server.